

BOLLWORM AIRDROPS BEING MADE IN TULARE COUNTY COTTON FIELD

EARLIMART — Airdrops of sterile male pink bollworm moths, at the rate of 15,000 per week, are currently being made on a 60-acre cotton field near Earlimart "purely as a safety measure," according to Gary Forsythe, district supervisor for the plant protection division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Bakersfield.

Forsythe said the airdrops began August 13 on a three-day per week schedule, after agriculture inspectors found a single moth in the field near Earlimart.

He stressed that only the single moth has been found to date, and that the drops would not expand further into Tulare county unless additional moths are found. He added that one moth "is not considered an infestation," but that federal, state, and county officials will continue in a cooperative effort to combat further spread of the insect pest.

Forsythe stated that there are 13 areas in Kern county which are receiving the sterilized moths, and that it was decided to make drops in the single Tulare county field as long as the drops were being made near-by.

He added that it is suspected the single moth found in Tulare county was simply a "fly-over" from Kern county, but that agricultural inspectors and Tulare county cotton growers will be watching their fields closely for signs of either moth or larvae in the cotton bolls.

He said that 80 percent of the battle against pink bollworm is won when growers cooperate in the annual plowdown program. The other 20 percent, he said, comes from regular governmental inspection of fields and plants.

Forsythe said the drops will probably continue into November.

GERALD MASSEY, of Delano, will return to Porterville airport September 4 through 6 with his homebuilt plane "Lil' Toot", for the EAA Western Fly-In air show. Stunt pilots Cliff Anderson, Bill Miller, and Bruce Whittig will also be featured air show attractions.

"Friendly Competition" Is Part Of Aerobatics, Says Pro Gerald Massey

PORTERVILLE — Professional stunt flyers will be trying to "outdo each other" at the EAA Western Fly-In September 4 through 6 at Porterville municipal airport, according to EAA chapter President Gerald Massey, who will also be one of four competitors.

"It's a friendly type of competition though," said Massey. "The four of us (Bill Miller, Long Beach; Cliff Anderson, Hanford; and Bruce Whittig, Boise, Idaho) see each other at Fly-Ins all over the state, and enjoy watching each others' variations on all the basic flying maneuvers."

Massey will be bringing his "Lil' Toot", a one-passenger home-built plane; Miller will be flying a unique Starduster, Anderson's plane is the Czechoslovakian-designed Zlin; and Whittig will fly his Mustang.

What does it take to be a professional stunt pilot?

KETCHUM FARM-LABOR BILL WILL FACE FIRST LEGISLATIVE HURDLE

SACRAMENTO — Recently resurrected farm-labor relations legislation will face its first legislative hurdle shortly after the legislature reconvenes in Sacramento, Assemblyman Bill Ketchum has announced.

Assembly Bill 639, authored by Ketchum with eleven co-sponsors, will be given a full hearing before the Assembly Committee on Labor Relations, September 15. This is the first step on the road to legislative approval.

Indicating pleasure at the early scheduling of the legislation, Ketchum pointed out the compromise nature of his bill.

"It is basic and constructive legislation written to protect both the California farmer and farm worker. I've heard dozens of legislators indicate their support of such a bill. This legislation provides a positive proposal behind which those Baseball or something, is set for the Porterville Municipal ball park tonight when Porterville City Police play Tulare County Sheriff Deputies in a Cancer Society benefit game. Mayor Larry Cotta will throw out the first ball at 8 p.m.; Mike Brown will manage the city boys; Sheriff Bob Wiley will master mind the deputies; Blind Sam LaPresta will call 'em as he don't see 'em; Jack Lucey is game chairman. Two former major leaguers, Buzz Stephen, of Porterville, and Tex Clevenger, of Visalia are rumored ringers for one or the other or both teams.

above Springville, where approximately 80 horses were given the vaccine. Following each vaccination, horses must be tagged individually on the mane or tail, shown at right with Darwin Griswold of Springville doing the tagging, and forms completed giving information on each individual horse. Griswold, president of the Springville Rodeo association, is arranging a vaccination clinic for Tuesday, August 31 at 5:00 p.m. in the Springville rodeo arena. Details of the clinic may be obtained by calling 539-2498.

Commemorative Medals For County's Jubilee Fair

TULARE — Commemorative medals, marking the fiftieth year of the Tulare County fair are now on sale at the Tulare branch of the Bank of America and from members of the Tulare Women's club. It is anticipated that the medals will also be available at Bank of America branches throughout Tulare county.

The medal, about the size of a dollar, was cast exclusively for the fair in both silver and bronze. The bronze medal sells for 75 cents and is good for one admission to the fair grounds.

The silver medal sells for $10.00 and is good for season admission to the fair; it is available only at the fair office, 215 East Alpine, in Tulare.

"Only 200 silver medals were cast, and each is numbered," according to Fair

BENEFIT FRIDAY FOR B.J. LADD

Friends of B.J. Ladd, proprietor of the Mountain Lion saloon, will stage a jam session and potluck supper Friday evening in the Mountain Lion as a benefit for Ladd who is seriously ill and is now in the UCLA Medical center. As usual, trail tramps, saddle bums, lovely ladies and all others are invited.

presentation was made in Reinecke's state capitol office with the lieutenant governor getting the second of 200 silver medals minted for Tulare County's Golden Jubilee Fair, September 21-36; silver medal No. 1 went to Alfred J. Elliott, of Tulare, first secretary-manager of the Tulare County Fair. The "collectors' item" silver medals are on sale at the County Fair office, 214 East Alpine, Tulare, for $10.00 each; bronze medals, at 75 cents, are being sold at the Tulare branch of the Bank of America and by members of the Tulare Women's club. It is anticipated that bronze medals will also be available at Bank of America branches throughout the county.

Editorial Comment

WE NEED A BETTER WAY

Charlie Luna seems to have gotten the big victory he wanted.

Luna is president of the United Transportation Union which staged the recent railroad strike. It has been the consensus among labor observers that he wasn't about to make his scheduled retirement at the end of the year without something pretty fancy to cap his career. That he is satisfied seems implicit in his jubilant statement that "It will go down in history that selective strikes will work."

They did. The railroads didn't come out empty-handed, exactly; they did achieve long-sought modernization of outmoded work rules which padded work forces and payrolls unnecessarily. But they paid an inflationary price.

Worse, even, the public also paid a drastic price. Ask the California growers whose specialty crops rotted in the fields because of the adroit timing of Luna's selective strikes.

Unions in the transportation and communications industries have what amounts to a monopoly hold on essential public services. Their rights must be fully protected, but so must the much larger public interest.

President Nixon has asked Congress to pass legislation providing a better way of settling strikes that affect that interest so deeply, and do it in a manner equally fair to labor and management. The President's proposal includes cooling-off periods and binding settlements based on final offers of the contesting parties.

We need some such solution. Congress has been reluctant to act, but the sooner it does, the better off we all will be, including the unions.

NUCLEAR PROTEST rally last Thursday evening at Murry park drew a crowd of approximately 75 persons, who heard Jim Abernathy, above right, of the Tulare County Coalition for Planned Environment, and T.A. Scott, below, president of the People of the Valley Ecology Motivation group. The two speakers, whose opposition to the proposed nuclear plant north of Porterville, centers around contamination of air and water through radiation, was refuted by Arden Lockman of Fresno, who stated that he worked on a nuclear-powered Navy submarine for two years and suffered no ill effects. He also stated that there are "vast differences" between nuclear bombs and nuclear power plants.

From Daybell Nursery

By John

Even though summer is still in evidence the wise gardener will be preparing for fall. However there are not too many of us that are wise gardeners so we might as well forget the whole thing and talk about baseball, nuclear power plants, or one way traffic on Main street. Any discussion of which could generate enough heat to extend summer for three more months or supply enough hot air to keep the city of Los Angeles warm until the year nineteen eighty.

We suspect that the problems of Los Angeles began when some foresighted soul planted a geranium around one of the pueblo adobes. This caused the gal next door to plant two geraniums and the people of the pueblo have never had enough water or power since. This all goes to show you that geraniums are nothing to be fooled around with unless you know what you're doing. The same thing is true of water and power, baseball, and one way traffic on Main street.

In case you would prefer to go outside and prepare for fall we have many products to aid your cause. First we have tools for working the soil. Next we have mulches to build the soil up and make it more like grandma used to use. Then we have hose and sprinklers to carry the water to the land. Lastly we have flowers and seed for fall planting along with plants of cabbage, cauliflower, and broccoli. We hope you'll have a happy garden.

Canterbelles Are Looking Forward To '72 Activities

PORTERVILLE — Canterbelles returned to Porterville Sunday from the State Horse show in Santa Rosa with a fifth place ribbon, and are already looking ahead to next year's activities.

Pam Beck, Canterbelle drill

captain, stated that both girls and horses are going to "take a short break" - performing occasionally in parades and the Tulare county fair - before returning to their usual rigorous rehearsal schedule around the first of the year.

The state horse show, she explained, is what the drill team works toward each year. First place at the show was taken by Stockdale Riding club of Bakersfield.

Each of the Canterbelle horses will be vaccinated for VEE disease next week, which will enable them to combine a two-week quarantine and well-deserved rest.

Electricity is vital to your way of life.
So is a healthy environment.
We're working to bring you both.

You can make Southern California powerless.

It depends on what you know about nuclear power plants.

In Southern California, the need for electricity has more than doubled in the last ten years. As the population increases, the need for electricity will continue to grow.

To meet this growing public need, Edison must build additional generating plants now. Otherwise a power shortage could occur by 1976.

One of the ways we plan to supply more power is by constructing additional nuclear power units at the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station near San Clemente.

But some people oppose construction of these units. One of their concerns is radiation. Actually, natural background radiation is everywhere and always has been. It comes from the food you eat, the air you breathe, the materials used to build your home.

The San Onofre nuclear plant is a source of some radiation, too. The question is, how much? The answer: so little that an elaborate monitoring program of the land, air and offshore waters near San Onofre has established that the amount is insignificant compared with natural background radiation. Far less, for example, than the additional amount received by moving from a wood to a stone or concrete home or apartment house.

Another concern may be the warm water released by nuclear power plants. At San Onofre, sea water is used to cool the plant condensers, and then the warmed water is returned to the sea.

To determine whether this harms the marine environment, Edison commissioned an oceanographic company of national stature to monitor the offshore waters both before and after the plant was built. Monitoring began in mid-1963 — four-and-a-half years before the plant commenced commercial operation — and has continued ever since.

Result: twenty-one reports reveal no significant changes in the marine environment. And that includes three years of plant operation.

In addition, the California State Department of Fish and Game made its own study of the same marine area in 1969. The Department concluded that the nuclear unit's operation did not appear to have had an adverse effect on the near-shore marine environment.

Based on these and other facts, we believe nuclear plants are a safe and sensible way to generate electricity. Clean, too. Since there's no combustion in a nuclear reactor, no by-products of combustion are released into the atmosphere.

At Edison, we plan to rely more and more on nuclear power to meet the growing need for electricity in the 14-county area we serve.

persons concerned with the problem can rally.

"With this bill I'm calling on my colleagues to face the challenge of eliminating the disastrous farm-labor problems that have characterized California agriculture in the past few years," Ketchum said.

Ketchum also indicated that all twelve of the sponsors of the bill are willing to accept comment or criticism of their proposal and are willing to discuss any constructive change in the language that may be

"We are willing to sit down with anyone and work out their problems with the bill in the interest of coming up with the best possible proposal," Ketchum said.

WITHIN A couple of months the Porterville City library will, quite likely, have a new head librarian. From then on there's no way left for the library to go except up.

FINALLY FACING the facts of administrative life, following the Irshay report and a very recent Porterville city manager's report, both of which indicated a sad state of deterioration in general library operation over an extended period of time, members of the library board last week gave 90-day notice to Head Librarian Tom Jellinek.

LIKEWISE, TO Assistant Librarian Ann Thrall, whose job had gradually put her into a sort of being-in-the-wrong-place-at-the-wrong-time situation.

FOLLOWING THE action by library board members - action taken in a personnel session - Mrs. Thrall tendered her resignation, effective November 17, Jellinek did the same.

WE WILL not second guess the move by the library board. In our opinion, however, this move, as it involves Jellinek, should have been made long ago.

PERSONS SERVING on public boards and commissions have a responsibility to set policy, then to see that their policy is carried out. When the person being paid to administer policy does not do so, or falls short in his total administrative efforts, it is the responsibility of board members to be aware of the situation and to take corrective action without undue delay.

CORRECTIVE ACTION is difficult when it involves tying the can to someone - perhaps a personal friend. But to delay action in the can tying, or in getting the administrator back on the beam, is not fair to the individual involved nor to the public that the board represents. Delay in this sort of situation invariably piles complication on complication and makes the inevitable corrective action more difficult and more unpleasant.

IN THE final analysis, members of public boards are responsible for success or failures within the entity they are appointed to oversee.

CURRENT UNDESIRABLE state of the Porterville city library, and current personnel problems, result in great part from inadequate and something considerably less than enlightened action on the part of city library board members who have served during the extended period of library deterioration. Action a year and a half ago - or earlier - would have prevented the present unfortunate situation.

VACCINATE SHOW HORSES

TULARE - Horse owners who intend to show at Tulare County's Golden Jubilee fair, September 21-26, should have their horses vaccinated for Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis as soon as possible, according to Al Slinde, secretary-manager of the fair.

"I have been assured by state officials that an adequate supply of VEE vaccine will be available in the San Joaquin valley," Slinde says, "and there is still sufficient time for vaccination and the mandatory two-week quarantine period that follows, prior to opening of the fair."

VEE vaccination of all horses in California is required by state regulation in an effort to prevent outbreak of the disease that hit Texas recently and that is considered a threat in all western states.

Duck Stamps May Be Affixed To Licenses

SACRAMENTO California Fish and Game commissioners are considering a request from the Department of Fish and Game that state duck stamps be affixed to hunting licenses before the hunting season, thus preventing hunters from transferring duck stamps.

JUNIOR VOLUNTEER workers at Porterville State Hospital were awarded pins for their services by Dr. James Shelton, medical director, at the hospital's annual junior awards program. Among the 100 volunteer workers this year contributing to 3,064 man hours of service were, from left: Cosette Telesford, 300 hours; James Miller, 1,000 hours; and Helen Highfill, 2,000 hours, all of Porterville. Special certificates were given to members of the Student Council for Exceptional Children for help in the volunteer services, and to the San Andreas Fault band for donating concerts at the hospital throughout the summer. (Farm Tribune photo) hours of flying time," said Massey "and I get plenty of that in my business as an agricultural pilot.

"But specifically," he continued, "you receive a Certificate of Competency" from the FAA. The certificate is issued in degrees according to the altitude you are allowed and how close to the crowd you can come. I'm at the point where I can fly zero altitude and do any maneuvers in any plane that I'm competent in." "Competent", Massey explained, means a minimum number of hours flown in a particular plane.

"Stunt plane can't be purchased," said Massey. "Like a race car, you have to build the maneuverability into them."

Massey recently installed a more powerful engine in Lil' Toot, and says its climbing potential increased notably with just a few additional horsepower.

All aerobatic routines are built around basic maneuvers - climbs, dives, loops, and rolls, he added.

"It's what the individual pilot and plane can do beyond these basics that makes it interesting for both flyer and observer," Massey said, "and the variety in models and sizes coming to the Porterville Fly-In should make a pretty good air show."

Other activities for the three-day show will be a poker run open to all pilots, spot landings, balloon chases, radio control displays and performances, evening dances, and trophy awards.

Porterville Jaycees are co-sponsoring the event.

TV PERSONALITY R. X. SLATTERY TO BE AT FLY-IN

PORTERVILLE — Television star Richard X. Slattery will be making a guest appearance at the EAA Western Fly-In, September 4 and 5 at Porterville municipal airport.

Slattery, who appeared recently in "Mr. Roberts", "Love American Style", and "Courtship of Eddie's Father", will assist EAA officials and Mayor Larry Cotta in awarding trophies and prizes during fly-in activities. Slattery will appear in another "Love American Style" program this fall.

Ed Shaw and Associates, a public relations organization in Beverly Hills, stated Tuesday that Slattery and probably two other prominent movie-TV personalities will be flying to Porterville Labor Day weekend to assist in presentations, meet the people of Porterville, and enjoy the fly-in.

packing house, located across the street on Plano, handles approximately 1,000 train box cars of lemons per year.

PACKING HOUSE "LANDMARK" WILL MAKE WAY FOR TCLA STORAGE LOT

PORTERVILLE — Tulare County Lemon association's packing house on Plano and Locust streets, although somewhat of a landmark in Porterville's history, is being torn down to make way for the association's equipment parking lot.

Called Tulare County Lemon and Grapefruit association in 1919 when the association was first formed, sharp declines in grapefruit handling over the past 30 years finally caused the name to be shortened in October of 1960.

be based on horsemanship, 60 percent, and ticket sales, 40 percent. Queen judges are James Nichols, Mrs. Gerald Mason, and Mrs. Tom Baker.

Tickets sold by each contestant are for a portable TV and an AM-FM radio, to be given away in a drawing at the junior rodeo on Saturday, August 28 in the Springville rodeo arena.

Queen's prize will be a $100 bond and trophy buckle, and the two princesses' prizes will be $50 bonds.

were: W.E. Sprott, Walter Parr, B.J. Morey, J.A. Althouse, H.R. Matzke, E.R. Abaid, and A.W. Swain according to documents kept by the association.

New facilities across the street from the old packing house handled over 1,000 car loads of fruit during the 1971-72 packing season. The association now packs under the Sunkist brand.

Board members today are: Solon Boydston, Jr., president; Bob Bennett, first vice president; Ron Michaelis, second vice president; John Gerry; Harvey Hartig, Daniel Althouse, and R.J. Owens, Jr.

Manager Al Slinde, who says they will be sold at the fair office on a first-come basis.

"No more will be minted, which means that the silver medals are real collector items," Slinde says.

First silver medal was presented to Alfred J. Elliott, of Tulare, who was the Tulare County Fair's first secretary-manager. Second medal was purchased by Ed Reinecke, lieutenant governor of the State of California; also purchasing medals were State Senator Howard Way and State Assemblyman Gordon Duffy.

Tulare county's Golden Jubilee Fair will open September 21 for a six day and night run through September 26.
